

KANANASKIS CONTROLLED ACCESS ZONE (CAZ)

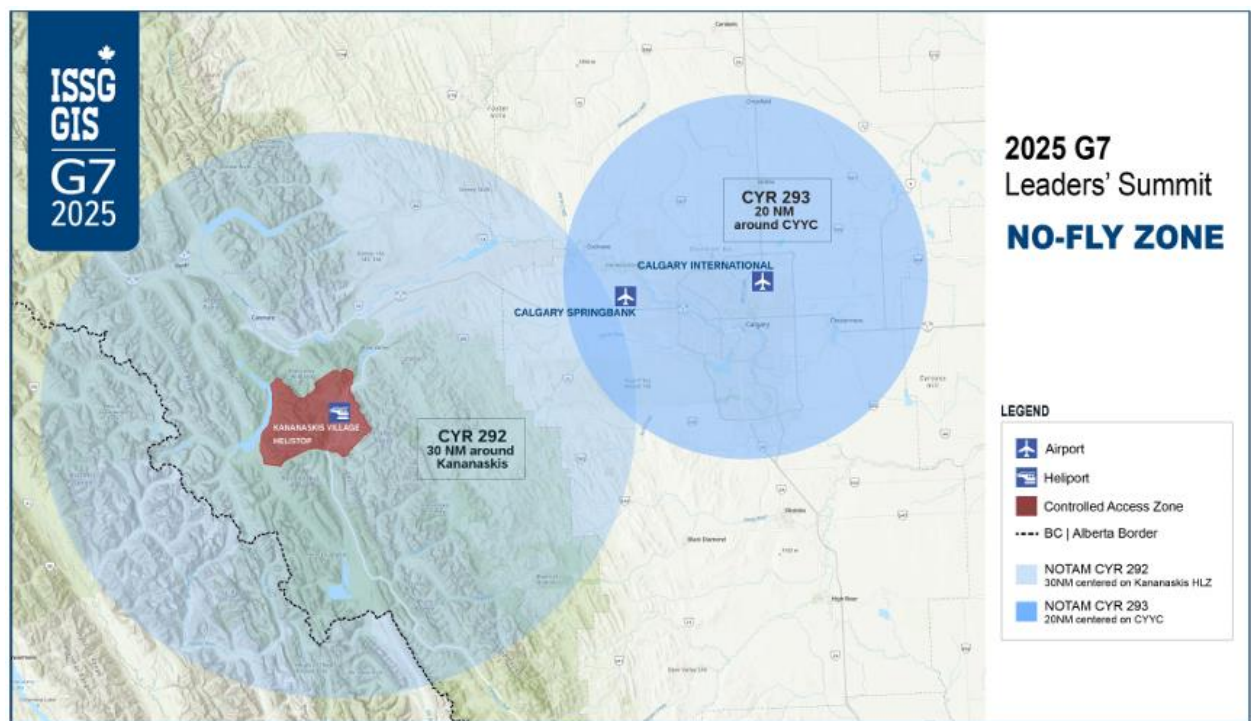

Map of the Kananaskis area where the controlled access zone was established.

- A controlled access zone (CAZ) was established around key Summit venues from June 10 to June 18, 2025.
- The areas affected are the following:
 - Northern boundary: No unauthorized vehicles permitted past the Mount Lorette Ponds, south along Highway 40.
 - Western boundary: Heavy security presence along the eastern slope of Highway 742. All hiking trails along the eastern slope were closed. Trails west of Highway 742 were open.
 - Southern boundary: No unauthorized vehicles permitted past the Galatea Creek parking lot, north along Highway 40.
 - Eastern boundary: The eastern boundary of the CAZ extended along the eastern mountain ridgeline of the Kananaskis Valley.
- In addition to the general closure of the CAZ, there were additional closures/dates at the following locations:
 - March 10 to July 31: Kovach Pond day use areas
 - April 22 to July 30: Nakiska Ski area

- May 20 to June 30: Troll Falls day use area
- May 24 to June 20: Mount Lorette Ponds, Beaver Ponds and Galatea day use areas
- June 1 to June 20: The Highwood Pass (Highway 40 from Highwood Junction to the Kananaskis Lakes Trail Junction) was closed to vehicle traffic
- June 10 to June 18: Kananaskis Village common area, Kananaskis Outfitters and Skyridge Glamping
- June 13 to 17: A section of St. Julien Road near the Banff Centre was closed to vehicle traffic

AIR RESTRICTIONS

Map of the 2025 G7 Leaders' Summit no-fly zone.

- Temporary airspace restrictions were enforced over the event area during the 2025 G7 Leaders' Summit.
- These temporary restrictions applied to all unauthorized aircrafts, including drones, within the designated no-fly zone.
- The RCMP implemented a NOTAM (Notice to Airmen) outlining the temporary air restrictions over Calgary and Kananaskis, Alberta, from June 14 at 6 am to June 17 at 11:59 pm local time.

CITY OF CALGARY G7 RELATED CLOSURES

The illustration shown represents road closures within the Calgary Jurisdiction.

