

MINISTER ANAND TO HOST G7 FOREIGN MINISTERS' MEETING IN THE NIAGARA REGION, IN ONTARIO

October 3, 2025 - Ottawa, Ontario - Global Affairs Canada

The Honourable Anita Anand, Minister of Foreign Affairs, today provided additional information about the upcoming G7 Foreign Ministers' Meeting, confirming that it will take place in the Niagara Region, in Ontario, from November 11 to 12, 2025.

Following the March 2025 G7 Foreign Ministers' Meeting, hosted by Minister Mélanie Joly in Charlevoix, Quebec, this upcoming meeting marks the second time Canada will host the foreign ministers this year under the G7 Presidency.

This meeting will bring together G7 ministers to discuss global challenges and strengthen international collaboration. The agenda will cover thematic issues including security and prosperity, as well as important work on economic resilience, following discussions held at the G7 Leaders' Summit in Kananaskis. Minister Anand and her counterparts will work toward coordinated G7 responses to pressing international challenges, emphasizing cooperation with partners across regions and sectors.

Quick facts

- The G7 is an informal forum of seven countries with advanced economies and the European Union. Its leaders meet annually at the G7 Summit to address global economic and geopolitical issues.
- Canada and its G7 partners are celebrating 50 years of partnership and cooperation in 2025. Since France hosted the first meeting in 1975, the G7 has been a driving force for international peace, economic prosperity and sustainable development.
- From June 15 to 17, 2025, G7 leaders gathered in Kananaskis, Alberta, for the G7 Summit. As host, Canada led discussions on shared priorities including international trade, peace and security, and global economic stability.

Related products

- Media Accreditation now open for the G7 Foreign Ministers' Meeting

Associated links

- Canada and the G7
- G7 Foreign Ministers' Meeting in the Niagara Region, Ontario

- G7 Foreign Ministers' Meeting in Charlevoix, Quebec

Contacts

Media Relations Office

Global Affairs Canada

media@international.gc.ca

Follow us on X: @CanadaFP

Like us on Facebook: Canada's foreign policy - Global Affairs Canada